TOMATO CROP INJURED .- The recent great storms, the almost continuous rains of the last two weeks and the sudden advent of cold weather have destroyed the greater part of the tomato crop. Canneries which should now be in operation at their full capacity are nearly at a stand still, agents have been instructed to refuse orders, and it is probable that there will be a large ad vance in the price of canned tomatoes and catchup. The full extent of the damage to the crop has not yet been ascertained, and dealers and canners are waiting anxiously for developments before making any con-tracts to can or sell tomato products. The loss falls heaviest upon the New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland farmers who are given fixed prices for their tomatoes, and the destruction of one half of their crop means the loss of just so much cash to them, -Phil Record.

THE MISCHIEVOUS SPARROW.-There seems to be no end to the mischief the Eag lish sparrow is capable of. One of the little feathered fiends recently took up his residence in a pipe of the organ in the Catholic Cathedral at Louisville, and the organist went nearly crezy before it was discovered what kept his instrument out of tune.

just, honest and patriotic. With a view to the interest of merchants, farmers and all interested, its commercial columns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to
